

I heard on CNN that your office is looking into the Janet Jackson/Justin Timberlake show at the Super Bowl. I wanted to say that I was offended that they would pull such a stunt with so many kids watching the show. It sickens me that they would do such a thing for PUBLICITY. No way in hell was that an accident.

I hope your office can take the necessary steps to put an end to such tasteless acts. Look at the class U2 showed two years prior....that should set the standard. Kid Rock should have been the entire show.

Thank you,

Don O'Brien, father of two sons.
